

FastAir

Avionics Maintenance Engineer – Class E License

Fast Air is looking for an Avionics Maintenance Engineer E License a join our team. We offer competitive wages and benefits including a pension plan. Our AME's normally work days with occasional evening and weekend shifts.

In addition to performing all of the tasks of an Avionics Technician the chosen candidate will train and supervise apprentices. Other responsibilities include:

- Repairing and servicing the aircrafts
- Verify that all components installed on the aircraft are properly certified
- Oversee the work of apprentices and provide instructions regarding company procedures and policies along with aviation standard practices
- Related duties/jobs as needed

Qualifications:

The ideal candidate will have the following skills and attributes:

- Must hold a valid AME Avionics "E" license.
- Must be able to pass the Canada Security Clearance
- General aviation experience would be considered an asset
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Strong work ethic
- a willingness to multi-task and be flexible to take on varied responsibilities
- Exceptional organizational skills with an attention to detail
- Ability to work under pressure
- Proven problem solving skills
- Enthusiastic and professional demeanor
- Ability to effectively work in a team environment and/or independently with minimal supervision

Interested applicants are asked to apply by emailing a cover letter and resume in confidence to reception@flyfastair.com.